Debbie Deverich
The 5 Love Languages

Debbie Deverich's presentations on Intentional Relationship Practices have impacted educators through-out the DFW region. Her presentation today combines some of that content and includes Gary Chapman's "The 5 Love Languages," known world-wide and available to explore at his website: 5lovelanguages.com

Debbie graduated from Baylor University with a degree in Education. She has taught high school Theatre, Choir and English and Elementary K-6 Music and Second Grade. After earning her Masters in School Counseling she has served on several campuses, working with students in Kindergarten through 12th grade as a School Counselor. She retired last year, but is currently serving as a long-term counselor substitute position in an elementary school in Little Elm.

Debbie is wife to Owen, mom to four married kids and Gigi to 5 grandchildren. She serves on the Praise Team at her church and you can find her appearing in live theatre and Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre shows in the Richardson/Plano/Allen area.
