

ROBSON RANCH WOMEN'S CLUB LUNCHEON

February 6, 2023

The general membership luncheon meeting of the RRWC was held on February 6, 2023.

Business Meeting:

Nancy Garre Caldwell, President, called the meeting to order at 12:08, following lunch, and welcomed all attendees and wished them a Happy Valentine's Day

Nancy read a quote for the meeting by Sam Levinson:

For attractive lips,
Speak word of kindness.

For lovely eyes,
Seek out the good in people.

For a slim figure,
Share your food with the hungry.

For beautiful hair,
Let a child run his fingers through it once a day.

For poise,
Walk with knowledge that you will never walk alone.

Nancy and Lisa Olson introduced new members and first-time attendees. Fifteen women introduced themselves to the group.

Lisa Olson helped celebrate January birthdays. The winner of the birthday drawing for a free lunch was Candy Anderson.

Nancy mentioned that the first special event of the year was happening on February 15. It is a trip to the Jane Nelson Institute for Women's Leadership to view their new galleries on Women's history in Texas. See Dee Sico if you'd like to go.

Nancy reported on our progress:

- Nancy stated that we already have 339 members signed up for 2023.

- Financially we have a $2460 carry over from last year, and as of 1/23/2023, we have $5333.99 total funds, $5940 in operating funds (dues) with 606.01 in operating funds spent.

Nancy thanked all of the volunteers who served as table decorators, greeters, and hospitality for a great job.

Shirley Monge reminded everyone to please fill out the pink sheets on the table or call her to send a get well, sympathy and congratulations cards to anyone in RR.

Nancy spoke about the need for volunteers to support our events and said we would need lots of volunteers for the Home and Garden Show. She said volunteering was a great way to get involved in the club and meet other members. She also asked that members buy raffle tickets to support this event. Justin Ace Hardware will provide the raffle item—the winner's choice of either a grill or outdoor heater.

Donna Gardner announced that Friends of the Family was our charity at today's luncheon. We raised $1405.00 at the luncheon to support their SAC program. Pamela Martin won the beautiful gift card wreath which was put together by Candy and Chris Anderson. Toni Johnson-Simpson, CEO of Friends of the Family, was introduced.

Nancy asked everyone to save the date for the Holiday Market which will be held on October 14th. She also reminded members of our website.

Gayle Lee announced that our March program will be Don Shannon who plays the bagpipes and then introduced our program: Robson Ranch Swingi'n Band. The band performed old favorites like Fever, It's Almost Like Being in Love, Night and Day, Crazy, Cry me a River and many others.

Nancy adjourned the meeting at 1:45 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Donna M. DeBoever
Secretary, RRWC
