

ROBSON RANCH WOMEN'S CLUB LUNCHEON

April 4, 2022

The general membership luncheon meeting of the RRWC was held on April 4, 2022.

Following a buffet luncheon, Rose Depoe called the meeting to order at 12:15.

Business Meeting:

Rose's quote for the meeting was from Mae West, "Look your best, who says love is blind."

Rose and Nancy Garre introduced the 22 new members and guests.

Those with April birthdays stood while the attendees sang happy birthday. The drawing was held for the birthday gift of a free lunch.

Rose provided updates of the club's membership. As of the meeting, we had 398 members.

Rose provided an overview of the Club's finances. As of the end of February, we had a balance in our account of $26,298.55. At the end of March, we had a balance of $35,654.80 due to the huge success of our Home and Garden Show. A check will be given to ODB in the amount of $19,076.50.

Rose thanked all of the individuals on the Luncheon Committee and the Hospitality Committee (Sign-In table, greeters and table decorators).

Ways and Means Committee brought in $19,076.50 for the Home and Garden Show.

Rose reported on Community Outreach. She announced the request for help received from the DCFC requested boxed skillet dinners. If anyone was interested in donating money or food to please contact Donna DeBoever. The winning ticket for donating to the Friends of the Family (our charity of the month) was Roxy Elting. Friends of the Family received $520.00.

Rose reminded members that the Sunshine committee sends cards and asked members use the pink sheet that was on the table.

Rose announced that all members were invited to bring a photo of their mother to be part of the centerpiece at the May luncheon. She reminded every one of the Mother's Day at the Ranch Event where we will be giving out roses and chocolates.

Lynn Teeling presented information on our next trip. We're going to the movies to see the new Downton Abby film on Friday, May 20th. There was a flyer on the table and registrations are available. Lynn needs a count of people going because the theater she reserved only holds 47 people. If we are a larger group then she will reserve a larger theater.

Nancy Garre announced that our May program will be Kay Thibodaux from the Touring Chocolatier.

Nancy introduced Dana from LeFashion Show and the program for today began.

Following the show, Nancy adjourned the meeting at 1:25.

Respectfully submitted,

Donna M. DeBoever
Secretary, RRWC
