April is the perfect time to bring out our models in the newest trends and colors for spring!

And what better person to introduce us to this year's hottest new colors than Dana Young, owner and consultant for LE FASHION COACH BOUTIQUE in Grapevine!

Featuring trendy, contemporary apparel and accessories for women, her popular boutique is one of Dallas's most visited destinations for those looking to buy the latest in casual and dressy fashions with a flair!

45 years as a retail buyer/owner has afforded Dana the ability to help clients create their own personal style with her specialty consulting and shopping services.

Integrating vendors and lines from Europe, Canada, and US. "Knowing your customer is key", said Dana, "but focusing on their individual lifestyle needs is integral to our success. Plus, we LOVE clothes!"

In an era of disappearing specialty stores, Le Fashion Coach offers "old fashioned" customer service paired with the newest trends.

You will be able to visit and purchase items the day after the show, as Dana will be reserving a room at the Clubhouse, from 9 a.m.-4 p.m., bringing a great selection of the clothes in all sizes, as well as a wonderful assortment of jewelry.

This event will no doubt sell out, so be sure to make your reservations early!
